GIFTING AND PERSONALITY

Spiritual Gifts

A spiritual gift is a special ability, given by the Holy Spirit to every believer, to be used to minister to others and therefore build up the Body of Christ. We may have more than one spiritual gift, and they are different from natural talents. They are always used for the benefit of others to build the kingdom of God. The following is a list of various gifts by category.

- Gifts that communicate God's Word – Preaching, Evangelism, Missions, and Apostle.
- Gifts that educate God's people – Teaching, Encouragement, Wisdom, Discernment, and Knowledge.
- Gifts that demonstrate God's love – Service, Mercy, Hospitality, Pastoring, and Giving.
- Gifts that celebrate God's presence – Music, Arts and Crafts, Intercession, Healing, Miracles, and Praying with the Spirit .
- Gifts that support others – Leadership, Administration, and Faith

From the above, list please list the gifts you believe have been given to you.

Personality

God has wired each of our temperaments in a unique way. There are many ways to look at personality, but these are five factors that show how God made us each differently:

1. Extroverted/Introverted – Do I get energy from being with people or being alone?
2. Thinker/Feeler – How do I make decisions, using objective facts or intuition?
3. Routine (Predictable)/Variety – What kind of tasks do I prefer?
4. Self-controlled/self-expressive – Am I more open or controlled in my moods, words and reactions?
5. Cooperative/Competitive – How do I handle relating to other people?

With each of the five factors, please circle which attribute describes you most accurately.

Extraverted	or	Introverted
Thinker	or	Feeler
Routine Tasks	or	Varied Tasks
Self-Controlled	or	Self-Expressive
Cooperative	or	Competitive

This mission trip will be an adventure with God. It will also be a time of stress, putting strain upon those who go: strain spiritually, emotionally and physically. Because of the anticipated stress, it is important that the mission team members be adequately prepared to deal with stress. Stress usually aggravates unsolved spiritual problems, increasing their difficulty. And the enemy will use the vulnerability to impair the mission team. It will be important that those who go on the trip:

- Not be engaged in sexual problems: premarital sex (or petting), adultery, homosexuality, pornography.
- Not be involved with drug problems (including alcohol and tobacco).
- Not be a rebel.

We will ask you about any problems in these areas for the past two years. If any one of these three has been a problem for you, please bring it up in our interview with you.

The wonderful thing about Christ is that He is willing to love us just as we are. And, He helps us move on from where we are and grow. We want to have that kind of atmosphere in our ministry. A mission trip, however, is an exceptional situation. Past sin will not necessarily keep you from being on the team. Please discuss any of these issues with us.

Have you experienced any problems in the above mentioned areas? Yes No
If yes, anything you would like to share in the application:
